

Consultation on the UST Admission Policy Proposed Changes for September 2025.

The University Schools Trust (UST), as a Multi-Academy Trust, operates as the admission authority for the schools within the UST. The UST, as part of its continued work with the community has retained the vast majority of admissions procedures outlined by the Local Authority of each school within the UST.

The areas of consultation as part of the UST's proposed admissions policy for September 2025 are found below. You can find a full copy of the proposed admissions on the individual school's website and the UST website (<https://www.ust.london/about-us/policies>).

Please note that for this consultation process it is only the area listed below where comments are sought.

Please send any comments relating to this admissions policy to info@ust.london by Friday 19th January 2024 at 3pm.

Please indicate clearly in the comments to the UST your role within the community from the list below;

- Acting on behalf of a Local Authority (Please indicate which Local Authority)
- Acting on behalf of an Admissions Authority (Please indicate which Admissions Authority)
- Teacher / Governor of a Local School
- Parent
- Other Local Community Stakeholder (Please provide information regarding this)

The areas for which comments are sought is;

St Paul's Way Trust School

- The UST is proposing to remove the oversubscription criteria pertaining to the priority of first born or eldest children. This is in order to align with LBTH's oversubscription criteria following their consultation on the same matter last year as per the UST's overarching aim within our admissions policy. Section 16.3.2 of the policy.

There are no consultation points that affect Royal Greenwich Trust School or Cyril Jackson primary School.
